

e a t e r y & w i n e

Our wine list is built around natural wines, bottles made with minimal intervention, fermented with native yeasts, and little to no additives. The result is wine that feels alive: expressive, sometimes unexpected, and deeply connected to the place it comes from.

At LB, we choose wines the same way we choose our food: thoughtfully, seasonally, and with care. You'll find a rotating selection from small producers who prioritize balance, transparency, and craftsmanship.

Natural wine isn't about being complicated or intimidating. It's about curiosity and enjoying something honest and well-made. Some wines may feel familiar, others a little different, and that's part of the experience.

For those who want to go a little deeper, we also offer our wine club, LB Wine Friends, a curated selection of bottles chosen by Paula, released regularly and designed to be enjoyed at home. It's an easy way to discover new producers, styles, and regions beyond the glass.

If you're unsure where to start, we're always happy to help you find something you'll love.
